

Semiconductors in Maryland

$132 billion

wage impact of semiconductor manufacturers

#24

in the U.S. with 193 semiconductor manufacturing jobs

$111 million

semiconductors are Maryland's 24th ranked export by value

#23

in the U.S. with 14 semiconductor establishments

National Data

The semiconductor industry directly employs over a quarter of a million workers in the U.S. and supports more than 1.6 million additional jobs in the U.S., with major manufacturing operations in 18 states.

Semiconductors are America's fourth-largest export after aircraft, refined oil, and crude oil.

The U.S. has a positive trade balance in semiconductors with virtually all our major trading partners, including China, and provided a net surplus of $13.2 billion to the overall trade balance in 2020.

The U.S. semiconductor industry annually invests approximately one-fifth of revenue in research and development, amounting to approximately $44 billion in 2020. This is among the highest R&D investment rates of any industry.