

Semiconductors in Utah

$1.4 billion

wage impact of semiconductor manufacturers

#14

in the U.S. with 3,177 total semiconductor jobs

$380 million

semiconductors are Utah's 9th ranked export by value

#15

in the U.S. with 31 semiconductor establishments

National Data

The semiconductor industry directly employs over a quarter of a million workers in the U.S. and supports more than 1.6 million additional jobs in the U.S., with major manufacturing operations in 18 states.

Semiconductors are America's fifth-largest export after aircraft, refined oil, and crude oil.

The U.S. has a positive trade balance in semiconductors with virtually all our major trading partners, including China, and provided a net surplus of $10.3 billion to the overall trade balance in 2021.

The U.S. semiconductor industry annually invests approximately one-fifth of revenue in research and development, amounting to approximately $50 billion in 2021. This is among the highest R&D investment rates of any industry.